

Haleakala Road Scheme To Be Pushed

Acting upon the request of the Chamber of Commerce that the supervisors take up the matter of having a road built to the top of Haleakala by prison labor, the board yesterday decided to make immediate application for a force of about 50 territorial prisoners, and to take steps to have the necessary surveys made.

The members of the board will go up the mountain on Monday or Tuesday and look and try to determine the best route. The members generally favor the plan of building up from the Kula home-stead road, the claim being made that the climate is drier, and construction work will be more easy than by the old Makawao-Ohlinda route. Engineer Hugh Howell and H. Gooding Field will accompany the board on its trip.

Two Japanese Women Suicide

Two Japanese women of Maui ended their lives by the suicide route this week. Sezuze Nakamura, aged 25, and wife of a clerk in J. Onishi store, Kahului, drank poison on Sunday evening, and died in great agony about 10 o'clock on Tuesday, medical skill being unavailing to save her. Despondency over money matters is given as the cause of the deed.

The other case was that of Matsuo Tanaka, wife of a laborer on the Paia plantation, who hanged herself with her obi from the rafter of her kitchen, early Wednesday morning. The woman arose about 3 o'clock to get breakfast for her family, and was found some time later, life being extinct. She was 41 years of age and the mother of 4 children. Jealousy of another woman is said to have been the cause of the act.

Locals

Miss Coupe, of California, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. A. L. Case, of Paia.

Miss Mary Hoffman is spending a vacation in Honolulu. She will be gone several weeks.

Miss Ruth Richards, of Honolulu, arrived Wednesday evening, and is a guest of Miss Cleo Case.

Dan Conway, the popular Honolulu traveling man, is making one of his regular visits to Maui.

H. Gooding Field arrived from Honolulu Wednesday night, and is the guest of his brother, W. H. Field.

Miss Marian Brown, of Honolulu is spending a short vacation visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. E. Turner, in Kahului.

Miss Laura Atherton, of Honolulu, is a guest at the D. H. Case home, in Wailuku. She arrived by the Claudine, on Tuesday.

James Steiner and son Walter, were Honolulu visitors on Maui for several days this week. They were enjoying a short outing.

To favor Miss Olive Lindsey a guest from Maui, Miss Dorothy Guild has invitations out for a luncheon next Thursday.

Church of the Good Shepherd Holy Communion, at 8 a.m. Morning Prayers, and Sermon "What is Prayer" at 11 o'clock. A welcome to friends and strangers.

Through the generosity of George Wilcox, of Kauai, the Union church of Wailuku has been helped out of financial difficulty by his contribution of $500, made recently.

H. E. Savage, chemist at Punene mill, who recently resigned his position, expects to leave for Honolulu by the Lurline in about two weeks.

Mrs. F. F. Baldwin and son arrived home on Thursday from a several weeks visit in Oakland and other coast points. Mrs. Baldwin was met in Honolulu by Mr. Baldwin, who went down to meet her.

W. F. Wilson, manager of the insurance department of C. Brewer & Company, spent a several days vacation on Maui last week. During the time, he made the trip over the ditch trail.

Auditor Charles Wilcox, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks with typhoid fever, is reported to have passed the crisis, and to be improving rapidly. It is expected that he will be able to leave Maui hospital within a week.

A. T. Longley, manager of the Territorial Marketing Division, was spent several days on Maui last week, looking into the prospects for miscellaneous crops. He was as far around as Kaupo, in the Hana district.

The "Poverty Dance" which was postponed from July 4th, has been set for Saturday, August 29th, at the Punene Club house as originally planned. The proceeds of the affair are for the benefit of the Kula Sanitarium.

A. E. Brune, who left last week for the Coast, expects to visit the west coast of South America before returning to Hawaii. Mr. Brune will look into a number of business enterprises while in the southern republics.

A report to the effect that the proceeds of tomorrow's game will be donated to the Kula sanitarium, is denied by officers of the Association. The matter of playing a special game in the near future for the benefit of the institution, is however, being considered.

Miss Beulah Drinkle, of Oskaloosa, Ia., the new Kindergarten at the Alexander House Settlement, arrived on the Manoa. Her work will begin in September. She is at present visiting her cousins the Misses Crickard.

Prof. and Mrs. A. R. Keller were visitors in Wailuku for several days early in the week. They had been spending a vacation at Kuiaha, as the guests of Prof. and Mrs. Krauss. Mr. Keller, who is a member of the Territorial board of health, spent time in looking into the health situation of Maui.

Miss Alona Whisler, who has just completed her sophomore year at Oberlin College, arrived on Thursday's Manoa. Miss Whisler will open a small private school for little children. She is living at the William and Mary Alexander Parsonage.

Attorney Eugene Murphy arrived home early this week, from a trip to Washington, where he went for the purpose of pressing charges against Judge Kingsbury. The appointment of Judge Edings as Kingsbury's successor, will, it is generally believed, result in the dropping of the quarrel.

The Maui Theatre's special feature night continues to draw full houses. The character of the films shown on these occasions during the past several weeks, is of the best both from mechanical and artistic standpoint. It is another demonstration that Maui audiences may be depended upon to support true merit.

Friend of J. B. Thompson, of Punene, are wondering how he is faring in England, where he has been visiting for several months. Reports are general that American tourists in all of the war-stricken European countries, are having a difficult time in securing money on their letters of credit. Mr. Thompson expected to return to Maui early in September.

Judge Kingsbury

to the home of the Rev. J. Charles Villiers, where Mrs. Kingsbury was appropriately serenaded, and wished the Elks' God-speed, on her journey.

During the evening splendid refreshments were served, in an especially attractive manner, while the Aloha Quintet rendered excellent music all through the evening.

Those present were: Judge Kingsbury, C. D. Luffkin, Dan Carey, Wm. Walsh, E. J. Walker, A. L. Case, E. R. Bevins, F. P. Rosecrans, John Bristow, of Marysville, Cal., Will J. Cooper, Conway, Dan Quill, Conrad Hansen, J. T. Fantom, Capt. E. H. Parker, Hugh Howell.

Judge and Mrs. Kingsbury expect to leave Maui on Sunday evening by the Manoa, and will continue to the Coast, where they will remain for an indefinite time. They expect to visit for a short time Judge Kingsbury's son, who is an officer stationed at the Presidio, San Francisco, later going to Southern California where they will visit other relatives. Whether or not they will spend the winter on the mainland, is uncertain at present, but they may do so unless the climate proves too severe for the Judge's health, in which case they will return to the Islands. It is the intention of Judge Kingsbury to open a law practice in Honolulu upon his return.

Collins And Lindsay Win Baldwin Cup

The second Harry Baldwin Trophy tennis tournament, came to an end on last Monday afternoon, when Collins and Lindsay of Paia, defeated Engle and Young, of Kahului, in the finals by score of 6-4, 6-2, and 6-4. The matches were played off on the Kahului grounds, and were witnessed by quite a large crowd of enthusiasts. The trophy, which is thus won from Myers and Richardson, last year's champions, must be won twice in succession by the same team in order to be held permanently.

Owing to illness on the part of Mr. Rosecrans, Engle and Young won their chance to participate in the finals through default of Rosecrans and Richardson in the Semi-finals.

Cracked Friend's Head May Be Insane.

Jin Jeong, a Chinese laborer of the Punene plantation, is being held in jail for investigation as to his sanity. Although he seems rational, no other ground than insanity seems to explain the murderous assault committed by him on Wednesday upon a fellow countryman named Ah Chai. The latter was asleep in his bunk, when without warning Jin approached and struck him a terrific blow on the head with a piece of hoe handle, laying open the scalp, and possibly fracturing the skull. The assailant admits his guilt, but offers no explanation, nor can his victim and erstwhile friend explain the assault.

Not "Governor" Baker.

Editor MAUI NEWS: In reporting the Charles A. Rice campaign through Hawaii, in a recent issue, you stated on my authority, that Governor Baker was handling the campaign on that island. I unintentionally erred in this, as it was Senator Baker I intended to refer to. I shall be pleased to have you make this correction.

Very truly,
H. W. RICE.

Announcement.

I hereby announce my candidacy for Senator, subject to the approval of the Republican voters at the primary election to be held on September 12. If nominated and elected, I pledge myself to faithfully support the platform of the Republican Party, and to work consistently for the best interests of Maui County.

Very truly yours,
(Sd.) W. T. ROBINSON.

Wailuku is Thanked

The Hawaiian Evangelical Association hereby expresses its grateful appreciation of the abounding hospitality of the churches and citizens of Wailuku and vicinity, and voices its prayer that the Divine blessing may abide with all who have so generously contributed to the great success of this Annual Meeting.

Muriel Reaches Hana

The schooner Muriel arrived at Hana, Thursday morning, 16 days out from San Francisco. She brought a cargo of general merchandise for the Hana district, and is now loading sugar from the Kaeleku mill, of which she will take about 14,000 bags. It is expected to get the little vessel away for the coast next Wednesday.

Burglar Steals Trunk and Money.

A house in the Japanese camp of the Pioneer Mill Company, at Lahaina, occupied by a man named Hochimoto, was burglarized on Wednesday, amount $50 in money and jewelry being taken. The stolen property was in a trunk, which was locked, and the thief carried the trunk some distance from the house before breaking it open. Sheriff Crowell believes he knows the identity of the burglar, and expected to soon have back in jail an old time boarder of his.

Pheasants Increasing Fast

Pheasants are becoming very numerous in almost all parts of Maui, according to reports which have been received by the Board of Supervisors. In fact it is stated that in some sections the birds are causing considerable damage to planted crops. It is probable that no more game birds will be ordered in the future by the board. The last shipment consisted of 40 pheasants, 19 of which were liberated in Hana district, and the balance on Molokai. Either the mongoose is getting scarcer, or the birds are learning how to evade the pest, for they seem to be increasing rapidly. The board was advised this week, that owing to a quarantine restriction against birds from Mexico, it will be impossible to secure the consignment of quail ordered some time since.

One Sided Humor.

After the company had gone Mrs. Mason said to her husband, "What on earth did you mean, John, by telling the Flemings that my humor was positive, but not negative?" "I meant," said Mr. Mason, discreetly moving to wake the door, "that you could make a joke, but couldn't take one!"

That's What They All Say.

"All men are alike. They're deceitful and selfish."
"How do you know?"
"A married friend of mine told me so and warned me against all of them."
"But you're going to marry Fred?"
"Of course I am. He's different!"—Detroit Free Press.

French Apples.

The best French apples are sent to market wrapped in tissue paper and separated by a thin layer of excelsior or straw. This is known as "packing in tissue."
